

5. The original decision-maker makes a determination with regard to the merits of the application for reconsideration. The original decision-maker may determine to do any of the following actions:
- To uphold the examination result.
 -

